

The ice stops are mounted in every valley in the tiles/roofing plate, or alternatively max. c/c 200 mm on plain roofs. Correctly mounted, the ice stops prevent snow and ice from sliding under the snow grating.

First, hook the upper hook and then lower the entire snow stop so the lower hook clicks into place on the lower section of the profile grating.

Make sure both hooks fasten on the edges of the grating.